DHRUMIL PARMAR

Passionate Learner

About Me

I'm Dhrumil Parmar, an enthusiastic and self-motivated fresher passionate about technology and creativity. I have learned and practiced core web development skills like PHP, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and enjoy building dynamic and responsive websites. Along with coding, I've explored the world of 3D animation and have started learning graphic design, which helps me blend creativity with technology. I'm always eager to learn more, improve my skills, and contribute to real-world projects where I can grow as a developer and designer.
